Movie of the Week

Vivian Liu/Vega Figarola

Foster's Home For Imaginary Friends

Rather than a movie, we have a TV series that ranged from 2004-2009. This series is about a boy named Mac whose mother told him to forget about his imaginary friend, Bloo. The good friends discover an orphanage for abandoned imaginary friends. As long as Mac continues to visit Bloo at the orphanage, Bloo won't be adopted to a new kid!

Guess The Character?

Shannon Powers/Joey Achamizo

Did you figure out last week's ATHLETE? It was Michael Jordan! This week, we have three sisters who were created from sugar, spice & EVERYTHING nice. They protect the citizens of Townsville. That includes helping the mayor open his pickle jar; a very important task!

Know who it is? Submit your guess at the link below & earn 5 SURF tickets if you're correct!
(You can submit the name of one the three sisters and still be eligible for the prize)
